

D2. Core indicators

The participant is

7 female male

8 The participant is not yet 25 years old.

yes no

9 The participant is not yet 27 years old.

yes no

10 The participant is older than 54 years old.

yes no

11 The participant is receiving unemployment benefits from the employment agency or unemployment benefit II from the job centre.

11.1 no

11.2 yes, from the employment agency (unemployment benefit)

11.3 yes, from the job centre (unemployment benefit II/Hartz IV)

12 The participant has been registered with the employment agency or job centre as unemployed:

for less than 6 months

12.1 yes no

more than 6 but less 12 months

12.2 yes no

for 12 months or longer

12.3 yes no

If question 12.3 was answered with "yes":

In the past 12 months the participant has either:

- participated in a support measure supported by the employment agency or job centre with a duration of more than 3 months,
- taken up employment subsidised by the employment agency or job centre
- taken up employment of 15 hours per week or more,
- or was incapable of working due to illness for more than six weeks.

12.4 yes no

(see completion notes defining long-term unemployment)

13 The participant is registered with the employment agency or the job centre as seeking employment

yes no

14 The participant will begin the measure very shortly:

14.1 The participant is employed in full-time or part-time work subject to compulsory social insurance

yes no

14.2 Marginally employed (also "mini-job")

yes no

14.3 self-employed

yes no

14.4 goes to a general education school

yes no

14.5 Is an apprentice in a company

yes no

14.6 is in school or non-company vocational training (vocational school, purely school with internship component)

yes no

14.7 full-time higher-education student

yes no

14.8 currently completing another education or training programme, e.g. through a training measure supported by the employment agency/job centre or an internship

yes no

14.9 are not employed, but rather e.g. a stay at home spouse, on parental leave

yes no

15 The highest educational degree attained by the participant is (check only one)

15.1 special school

15.2 secondary school

15.3 intermediate school-leaving qualification (comprehensive school, technical secondary school entry qualification)

- 15.4 occupation preparation year / occupation orientation year / career training preparation year etc. (no recognition as a first year of training, but it is possible to complete a leaving certificate)
- 15.5 year of profession-related general education (recognition as first year).
- 15.6 university entrance / advanced technical college qualification
- a completed via the first educational pathway (e.g. high school, comprehensive school, technical secondary school)
- b completed via the second educational pathway (e.g. school of adult education, night school)
- 15.7 no school leaving certificate
- a and has been to school for at least 4 years
- b. and has been to school for less than 4 years

16 The highest vocational qualification of the participants is (multiple answers not possible):

- 16.1 (external) company training / vocational apprenticeship, vocational training school other school-based vocational training
- 16.2 Bachelor from technical college / graduation diploma, master craftsman's certificate or an equivalent certificate
- 16.3 (technical) college master's degree, diploma university study course
- 16.4 doctorate
- 16.5 has not (yet) completed vocational training

If the school or vocational qualification was awarded abroad, please choose an equivalent qualification in the list.

- 17 At least one child qualifying for child support or financially dependent under 25 years of age lives in household of the participant (this can also be the participant themselves).
- yes no
- 18 The participant lives in a household with only one adult and at least one child qualifying for child support or financially dependent under 25 years of age
- yes no

(instructions on number 18: persons who are of legal age, but qualify for child support, are to be counted as children.)

- 19 At least one other person who is employed lives in the household of the participant.
- yes no

Part D3: other indicators

- 20 The participant has German citizenship
- yes no

If question 20 was answered with "yes":

- 21 The participant belongs to a minority recognised in Germany (recognised minorities = Sinti, Roma, Danes (only in Schleswig-Holstein); Frisians (only in Schleswig-Holstein and Lower Saxony); Sorbians (only in Saxony and Brandenburg))
- yes no

- 22 The participant or his/her parents or at least one parent was not born in Germany and came to Germany in 1950 or later or is of foreign origin
- yes no

- 23 The participant has a disabled ID card or equivalent official documentation
- yes no

- 24 The participant has a fixed address and is not in danger of homelessness
- yes no

- 25 The participant is disadvantaged in comparison with other people because of other characteristics (e.g. released from prison, illiterate, residence status, drug addiction)
- yes no